ACTIVIES DRAMA WORSHIP ACTION

Ideal for a J2A "Leap Year" or classes who have "aged out" of rotation or Godly Play

In our modern experience of Christianity, it's hard to understand how those first-century believers had to live and worship in secret. This creative program helps young people experience the drama and daring of living in such dangerous times. When we remember what it was like for those early disciples, we can discover anew the passion and purposes of Christianity for ourselves.

EXPERIENCE LIFE IN THE EARLY CHURCH

Learn while doing

The group builds a diorama of the city they are living in – learning about the life of early Christians by being them! Each young person has a character that holds information about the city – what food did they eat, what clothes did they wear, how did they build there homes? In order to build the diorama, they have to share the information each of them holds. Discussions help link the challenges facing early Christians to the challenges we face.

Learn while praying

Many people forget that Jesus was a Jew and the earliest Christians were Jews who didn't realize they were starting a new religion. Your group will learn how the disciples of Jesus lived and worshipped in the first 50 years, how they faced persecution and how the Holy Spirit inspired them to spread the Good News of God's Kingdom. Engaging discussions encourage you to think and plan how we can spread the Word today.

Discover the faith of the disciples

Re-create a Christian gathering in Caesarea in 58 C.E. with each young person taking on the role of an early disciple. Worship as they did – learn Hebrew chants and the Jewish service. Experience the sights and sounds of life in an ancient city at the time of the birth of a new faith.

Meet Paul and learn about his adventurous journeys

Paul arrives at your classroom to tell his story – and sends letters to keep you informed of his travels. Track his progress on a map you create.

GODLY JOURNEY LEADS YOU THROUGH THE ADVENTURES OF EARLY CHRISTIAN LIFE

And invites you to join the community of Christians who have spread the Good News through the ages
